Climb

THE POWERFUL GROUP EXPERIENCE

“This was a brave group of women who weren’t afraid to look deeply into what might be making success more difficult for them and talk openly about it with each other. They kept working together as a group, pushing themselves, until the very last day. At Climb, we create the group structure very intentionally as an opportunity for the moms to practice their communication skills and develop support networks outside of the program. On our final day, we could see that bond take shape, and it was awesome to witness.”

— Stacie McDonald, Gillette Program Director

“I learned so much from my Climb experience. I learned to be a better mother and employee. Climb helped me get my smile back!”

— Felicia, Program Participant
