PERMISSION TO BE YOURSELF

“These women were trailblazers, completing the first Climb program of this type in Laramie. I saw their confidence grow as they faced the challenges of being a single mom or overcoming a fear of heights while climbing steep ladders.

The program really gave them permission to be themselves and realize, ‘I can be myself and still be liked and successful.’ That’s such a gift in a professional setting, where if you try to be something other than yourself, you won’t find a good career fit.”

— Katie Hogarty, Laramie Program Director

“Celebrating myself and feeling like I can be something in my career made me a good fit for my job. If I had tried to be someone else, I wouldn’t have been hired.”

— Taniesha, Program Participant
